INO DECISION YET IN SHEPPARD CASE

Enters Wall Just Above Head of The Registration Committee of Athletic Union Unable to Decide Thus Far,

> (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
> NEW YORLS, March 25.—After a discussion lasting nearly four hours, at the Wyandot Club, yesterday, the registration committee of the Ameleur Athlette Union could come to no decision in regard to the charges of professionalism, made against Melvin Sheppard, the star mile runner, and whether or not he will represent America in Athens, still remains in abeyance.

> sufficient to declare Ehrppard a professional, and further investigation is to be made into his standing as an amateur. The committee, which consists of John P. Boyle, Michael J. Flynn and John Stell. Boyle, Michael J. Flynn and John Stell, will make their final decision next Wednesday, which will be in plenty of time to give Sheppard a chance to sail with the Olympic team in case he is elerred.
> The case as it now stands against the athlete is whether he competed an Alvin Smith, in the Caledonian games at Muspeth, L. L., on Labor Day, 1901. By showing medals which he won on days when he was charged with competing at professional games at a certain Clan-na-Gael plenic, he proved his innocence, and the charges are now narrowed down to the one specific case mentioned.
